Dipper and Mabel, the coolest kids at Vavoom High, are best friends. But their home life is anything but! In their quest to become the ultimate team--Mabel and Dipper's team--they concoct a plan to abduct a famous rock band from their hometown to make it big! But, more than anything, these kids hope to learn the truth about their dad--and why he left them. After Dipper goes to sleep, Mabel has a dream where she is a character in a horror movie. She wakes up feeling sick, and her mom is out of town, leaving her to take care of her younger brother, Ford. Meanwhile, Dipper is terrified by a man who is going to throw him off a bridge! He is chased through the woods by the man, only to be saved when Dipper and Mabel create a portal and it pulls them through. Dipper and Mabel navigate their new home, the ship--Dipper's room--Mabel's room. Mabel is fascinated by her new surroundings, but Dipper is hesitant to trust them and confused that his things are different. After examining a mysterious tracking device, Mabel and Dipper realize that they're being followed, and soon they discover that the ship contains secrets. The ship is actually a time machine, and the device that is tracking them is the engine. As they attempt to reverse the engine's malfunctions, they inadvertently visit the future, going from a world of mutants and dinosaurs to a modern earth. When they return to the present, the ship crashes and they find themselves in San Junipero, where the town's residents are friendly and the kids' parents have married, though it is difficult to trust them, as they seem clueless about their disappeared sons. The children are reluctant to leave, concerned that their own reality will be worse than this one. They decide to try to contact their parents.

Dipper discovers a giant ship in the woods and he and Mabel enter it, finding that it is the one they see on the tracker. Meanwhile, Ford, now nearly 11, witnesses a kidnapping and finds himself in a school for children of ninjas. When he runs away, he encounters an elite family of ninja, training him to be a ninja himself. The kids befriend a girl named Betty and a young boy named Bufkin, who tell them that the children's parents have already been captured, and that their entire reality is a lie.
